AN APOLOGY

The Senorio staff sincerely regrets the delay in publication of the 1974 Senorio. The reason for the delay is that in production, more than half of the pages were lost and had to be replaced. It has not been determined how, when, or where these pages disappeared. They were mailed from Olmsted Falls, but were not received by the plant that does the printing in Pennsylvania. A trace of the mail has not produced any solution. Once it was determined that the missing pages would likely not be found, the long and arduous task of replacement began. This meant matching and replacing hundreds of photographs. This was not possible in all cases, so the best that could be done under the circumstances is what you will find as you turn the pages of this book. It was also impossible to obtain information for an accurate senior index, so this was omitted. We hope that you will understand what has happened and will decide that this book was worth waiting for. Again, our sincere apologies for the delay.

SENORIO

The 1974 Senorio staff had a very busy and exciting year preparing this yearbook. Many hours of effort were poured into this souvenir of your high school years. The work was guided by Sue Hobbib, Editor (seated, at left) and Tina Moyers, Assistant Editor (seated, at right). The Senorio advisor is Mr. Craig Barbee.

1973-74 FOOTBALL

The fall of 1973 began with high hopes for the football team. The team had great confidence in one another, and encouraged each other. It was an injury to Mike Shellenberger that began the chain reaction of injuries and a truck-load of bad luck. The North Royalton and Rocky River games were the highlights of the season. Fairview was a heart-breaker--the band was all lined up to pound out a victory march and Fairview scored. Matt Kane and Gary Franklin were co-captains, who led the Bulldog team and assisted their coach, Mr. Jay Hershey. 1973 proved to be a hard-fought, yet disappointing season.

1st Row--Coach Dudek, Coach Hershey, Coach Lingell. 2nd Row--Ted Smith, Ed Greviskis, Don Paison, Don Lippert, Meade Caucci, Steve Ineman, Darlo Pack, Jim Jackson, Dave Rooney. 3rd Row--Bob Warner, Mark Dorow, Gary Franklin, Mike Schellenberger, Kirt Jacobson, Mark Hunt, Bruce McClain, Mark Spanulo. 4th Row--Richie Miska, Scot Davis, Bob Grant, Jay Jones, Dan Campbell, Steve McMillin, Dan Beresky, Gino Saponari. 5th Row--Allan Butcher, Dale Roser, Jeff Bierlion, Matt Kane, Jerry Soukup, Bob Sanford, Mike Ryan, Larry Hechko, Ken Pugh, Mgr.

Having a "peppy team at practice" helped the J.V. team to emerge with an excellent 6-3 record. Many J.V.'s excelled to contribute their skills in the varsity games.

The J.V.'s drilled with the Varsity team and practiced plays as a team. Coach Glen Schnieder, "treating the boys as equals, raised their respect and supervised competition." "Coach Schnieder was a good coach, he cared about the team and thats what counts most with us guys."

The games held in the 1973-74 season were on Saturday mornings from 8:00 to 12:30. These games sported many spectators; Each game had a fairly big turn-out, "Parents Galore."

FROSH ARE NUMBER 1

Coaches, David Parrish and James Emigh, produced an undefeated freshman team in the fall of 1973-74. Leading the freshman team to this victorious season were captains, Jack Simpson, Rick Reitz, and Dennis Kane. The Bull dogs worked hard and put everything they had, into their games. Teamwork and spirit were major factors that kept the freshmen winning. Spirit was a characteristic of the freshmen class. The enthusiasm, coupled with their skill, drove their opponents into the ground and the fresh came out on top; the number "1" team of the season!!!!

AN OLD-FASHIONED HOME COMING

At half time of the football game between Olmsted Falls and Fairview, the band took to the field and began to play "Music to Watch Girls By." It was to this music that the old fashioned cars rolled onto the field. The candidates, Darci Hecker, Sue DeWillie, Jo Ann Herrmann, Theresa Calco and Wendy Leech, wore long dresses from the 19th century. After some moments of anticipation Wendy Leech was crowned Homecoming queen. After the football game, the 1973-74 Homecoming Dance began. The theme of the 19th century was carried over to the dance. The band, Baby Snooks, performed to an enthusiastic student body. The air was filled with rock music, and every so often some slow sentimental music gave the dancers a break. Behind the success of this dance were the efforts of Carol Dooney, who conducted all the arrangements.

Quite a few things plagued the Olmsted Falls Cross Country team, during the 1973-74 season. The lack of experienced runners and the lack of fans, did little to boost the spirit of the team. There were only four seniors out of a total of twenty team members. The team however, did set one new record; at the Strongsville Invitational; there were 25 fans, an all-time high. The Varsity placed sixth at the Strongsville Invitational out of a field of fourteen, third at the Cloverleaf Invitational, fifth in the Southwestern Conference, and third in the Sectional Tournament. The junior varsity finished first at the Strongsville Invitational, second at the Cloverleaf Invitational, and third in the Conference. Certain individuals obtained personal triumphs. Four runners finished under eleven minutes at the Sectionals and Len Davidson qualified at the same tournament for the District meet in Akron, Ohio. "A few points here and there could have really changed our season and our record, all round," summed up one team member. "We expect a good team in the next few years considering the J.V. team's performance this year.

GIRLS IN SPORTS

BULLDOGS

"Women in Sports." It's a phrase being heard more and more frequently around OFHS. Over the P.A. are heard the battle-scarred results and scores of Girls' volleyball, tennis, basketball, and track. The girls have gained pride, experience, and maturity from their new-found recreation, but even more they have learned the necessity of competition. Sports for women is more than just games of win or lose. Learning that you are not the best, getting to know girls from other schools, knowing the feelings that arise from winning, and losing, all these are an integral part of Girls' Sports. Out on the court or field, girls realize and accept the fact that they are friendly adversaries involved in competition. Unfortunately, the trend is starting to shift more towards men's athletics, where wins or losses, or conference records, mean more than, "What did I gain or learn from the season," and knowing and feeling the rules of good sportsmanship.

BULLDOLLS NUMBER 1 CHAMPS!!!

The Olmsted Falls girls' basketball team brought back the first SWC championship since 1966. They produced an undefeated conference season. Mr. and Mrs. Moore jointly coached the team to victory, stressing defense and encouraging a strong sense of school pride and spirit. The team worked hard to achieve their goal and they were jubilant when the goal was finally realized. The toughest, and most rewarding victory was against Bay Village, 36-32. The two teams struggled until the last two minutes, but the Bulldolls won on a tough defense and four foul shots. At the season's end sophomore Kathy Petto and junior Bulldolls won on a tough defense and four foul shots. At the season's end sophomore Kathy Petto and junior Marie Spanulo tallied over 140 points. The spirit and drive of the basketball team was merely an example of girls' enthusiasm in sports. Girls' sports is quickly becoming a subject of interest in all schools. Girls who play sports have always had to be strong. They have been ridiculed for being unfeminine. Sports develop coordination and skill and do not really detract from the person. Pride in self and school is apparent in the girls and inspires others to be proud.

Hopefully, girls sports will never become like the boys'. It will ruin the whole essence of Girls' Sports. Girls' naturally are not as competitive as boys', their feelings are hurt easier, being a team, a unit is their biggest asset. This disintegration of attitude in Girls' Sports is a thing to be feared and stopped before the breaking a-part process becomes complete. This is a silent appeal to all those who care about athletics and the future of the young men and women in OFHS, to retain the dignity, compassion, and self-respect of sports, as they should be.

JOG-ON

The 1973-74 Girl's Track Team overcame inexperience and tough practicing conditions to capture second place in the Southwest Conference. Thirty five girls participated in this first year activity at OFHS. Track meets were similar to those run by the boys: the only events not included were the two-mile run and the pole-vault. Freshman Lynn Jackson was voted most valuable Player by her team-mates, with another freshmen, Jenny Coffey, receiving the Most Improved award.

"I was very proud of the team performance," said coach Lynne Hobart, who also taught Girls' Health and Physical Education for her first year at Olmsted Falls.

Little Mary Sunshine

The first musical ever performed at OFHS took place on November 17 with a capacity crowd both nights. Standing ovations were given repeatedly both nights to the nervous yet deserving performers. Special thanks is due to Masquers advisor, Mrs. Sherri Allen and director, Mr. John G. Wrabel, who through their patience and uniting devotion, made this musical such a success.

VARSITY

The Bulldogs overcame injuries and inexperience to compile a 9-10 record and win five straight games during the last part of their season. The start of the season ushered in disappointment after disappointment for the Olmsted fans, with 1-point loss to Strongsville in the opening game and the injury of Mike McKinney early in the season. In regards to Cobb, carrying the offense on his shoulders, McKinney said, "I don't know anyone who wants to win as much as he does. He gives his all-every minute of the game. Everybody did their job, what they could do best, and Greg's job was to shoot." After the Bay game, the Bulldog's put it all together, winning 5 straight and defeating North Olmsted in the last home game of the season, playing to near capacity crowd, on "Parent's Night." Greg Cobb received several honors for his outstanding season. He was selected as the Most Valuable Player in the SWC, named to the Cleveland Press; Presstar Team, named to the Cleveland Plain Dealer's Dream Team, picked as the Northeastern District "AA" Player of the year, and set a new individual season scoring mark with 47 points, individually and a total of 704 points for the season. Greg was the leading scorer in the state with an average of 37.1 points per game, and was named to the UPI and AP 1st team "AA" All Ohio Team.

JV Roundballers proved to be an aggressive team. They ended their season with 8 wins and 5 losses. Starting for the Bulldogs, were Todd Monn, Paul Schade, Craig Mills, and Perry Patterson, the fifth man, was optional. Later on in the season, Monn and Schade were moved up to Varsity and Matt Bak, Gordon Geist, and Tom Benko became JV starters. The loss of two starters hurt the team, but gave other players more experience, This will strengthen next year's Varsity team. The time OF and Bay met, OF won. The Avon Lake game went into double overtime and was won on hustle and inspiration from Coach Besecker. The JV team ended third in conference, despite their loss of Monn and Schade; they did a commendable job.

FROSH WINNING SEASON

Freshman enjoyed a winning season consisting of eleven wins and three losses in the conference. These three losses were to Bay Village and Rocky River. The freshman not only had great ability, but also great spirit. This spirit backed up the Freshman Roundballers and gave them confidence. Coach Ron Moyers predicted an overall 14-3 season. The team was disappointed at the tournaments. They were predicted to take first place, but instead took third. Avon took first and Firelands took second.

GRAPPLERS

VARSITY and JV

After a winless season last year, the grapplers bounced back and won two matches and tied one. These three matches were very exciting as they were not won until the last two wrestlers finished. These two Al Holden and Matt Kane were the only seniors on the team, and the most experienced. Al Holden wrestled at 185 lbs., while Matt Kane wrestled at heavyweight. Throughout the season, many fine, individual performances were made. Matt Kane received the MVP award, and Larry Hechko got the award for the most takedowns. Matt Kane had the fastest pin of the year against Fairview, where he pinned his man in 34 seconds. Only two seniors are graduating, so next year, hopefully there will be a more confident and experienced team.

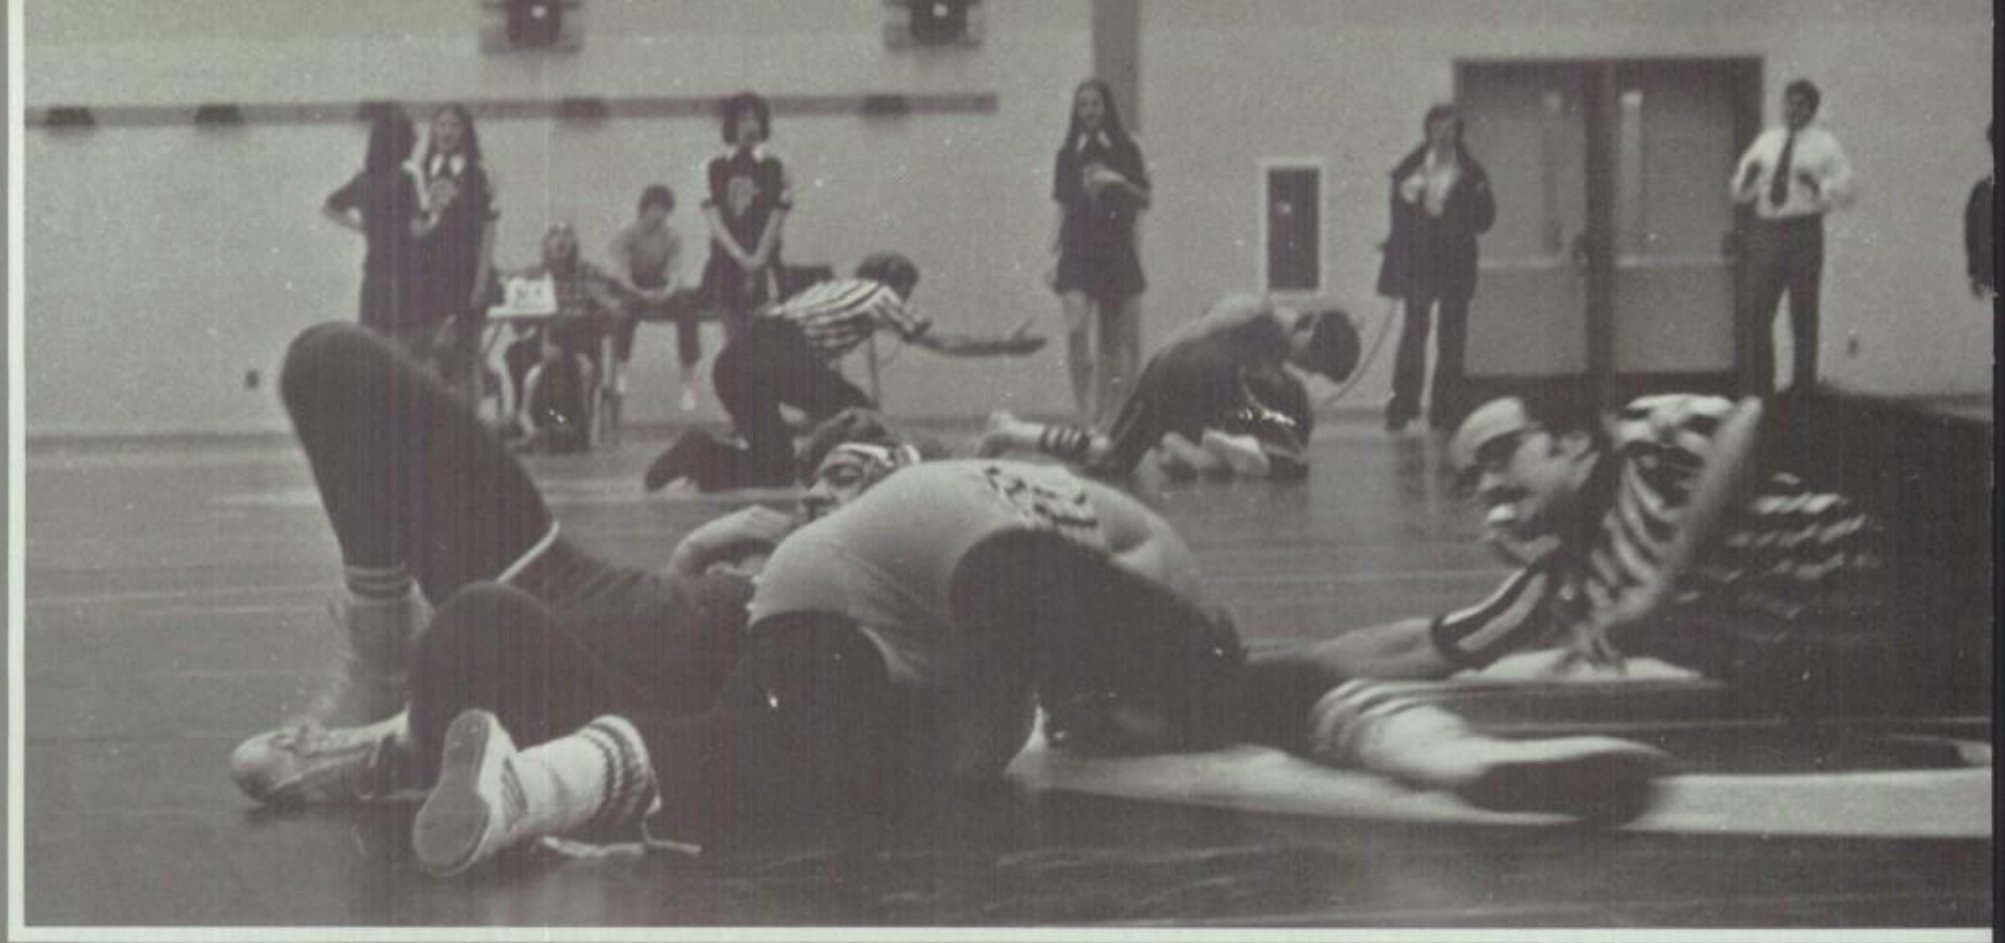
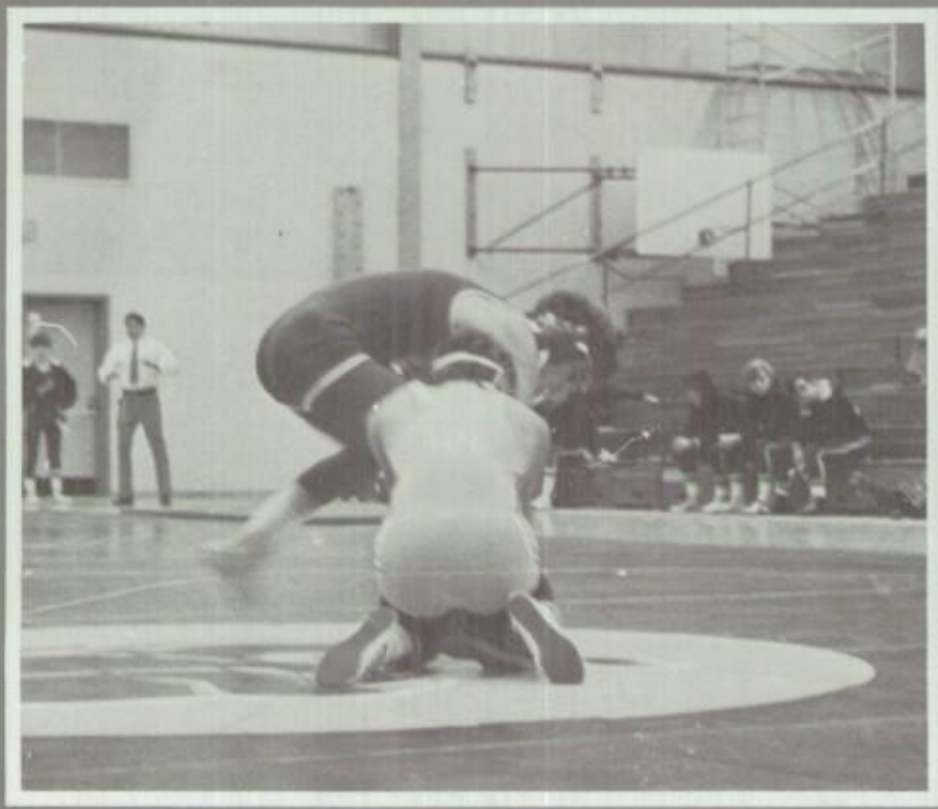
FROSH WRESTLING





Although small in numbers, this year's freshmen wrestling team experienced a very successful season. One-on-one competition was stressed during the entire season. Seven of the nine wrestlers on the squad had winning records in dual meets. Team unity was also stressed and was a major reason for the team's success. The highlight of the season was participating in the Freshman Tournament at North Olmsted. The squad ended the season on a successful note by taking three second places, two third places, and two fourth places.

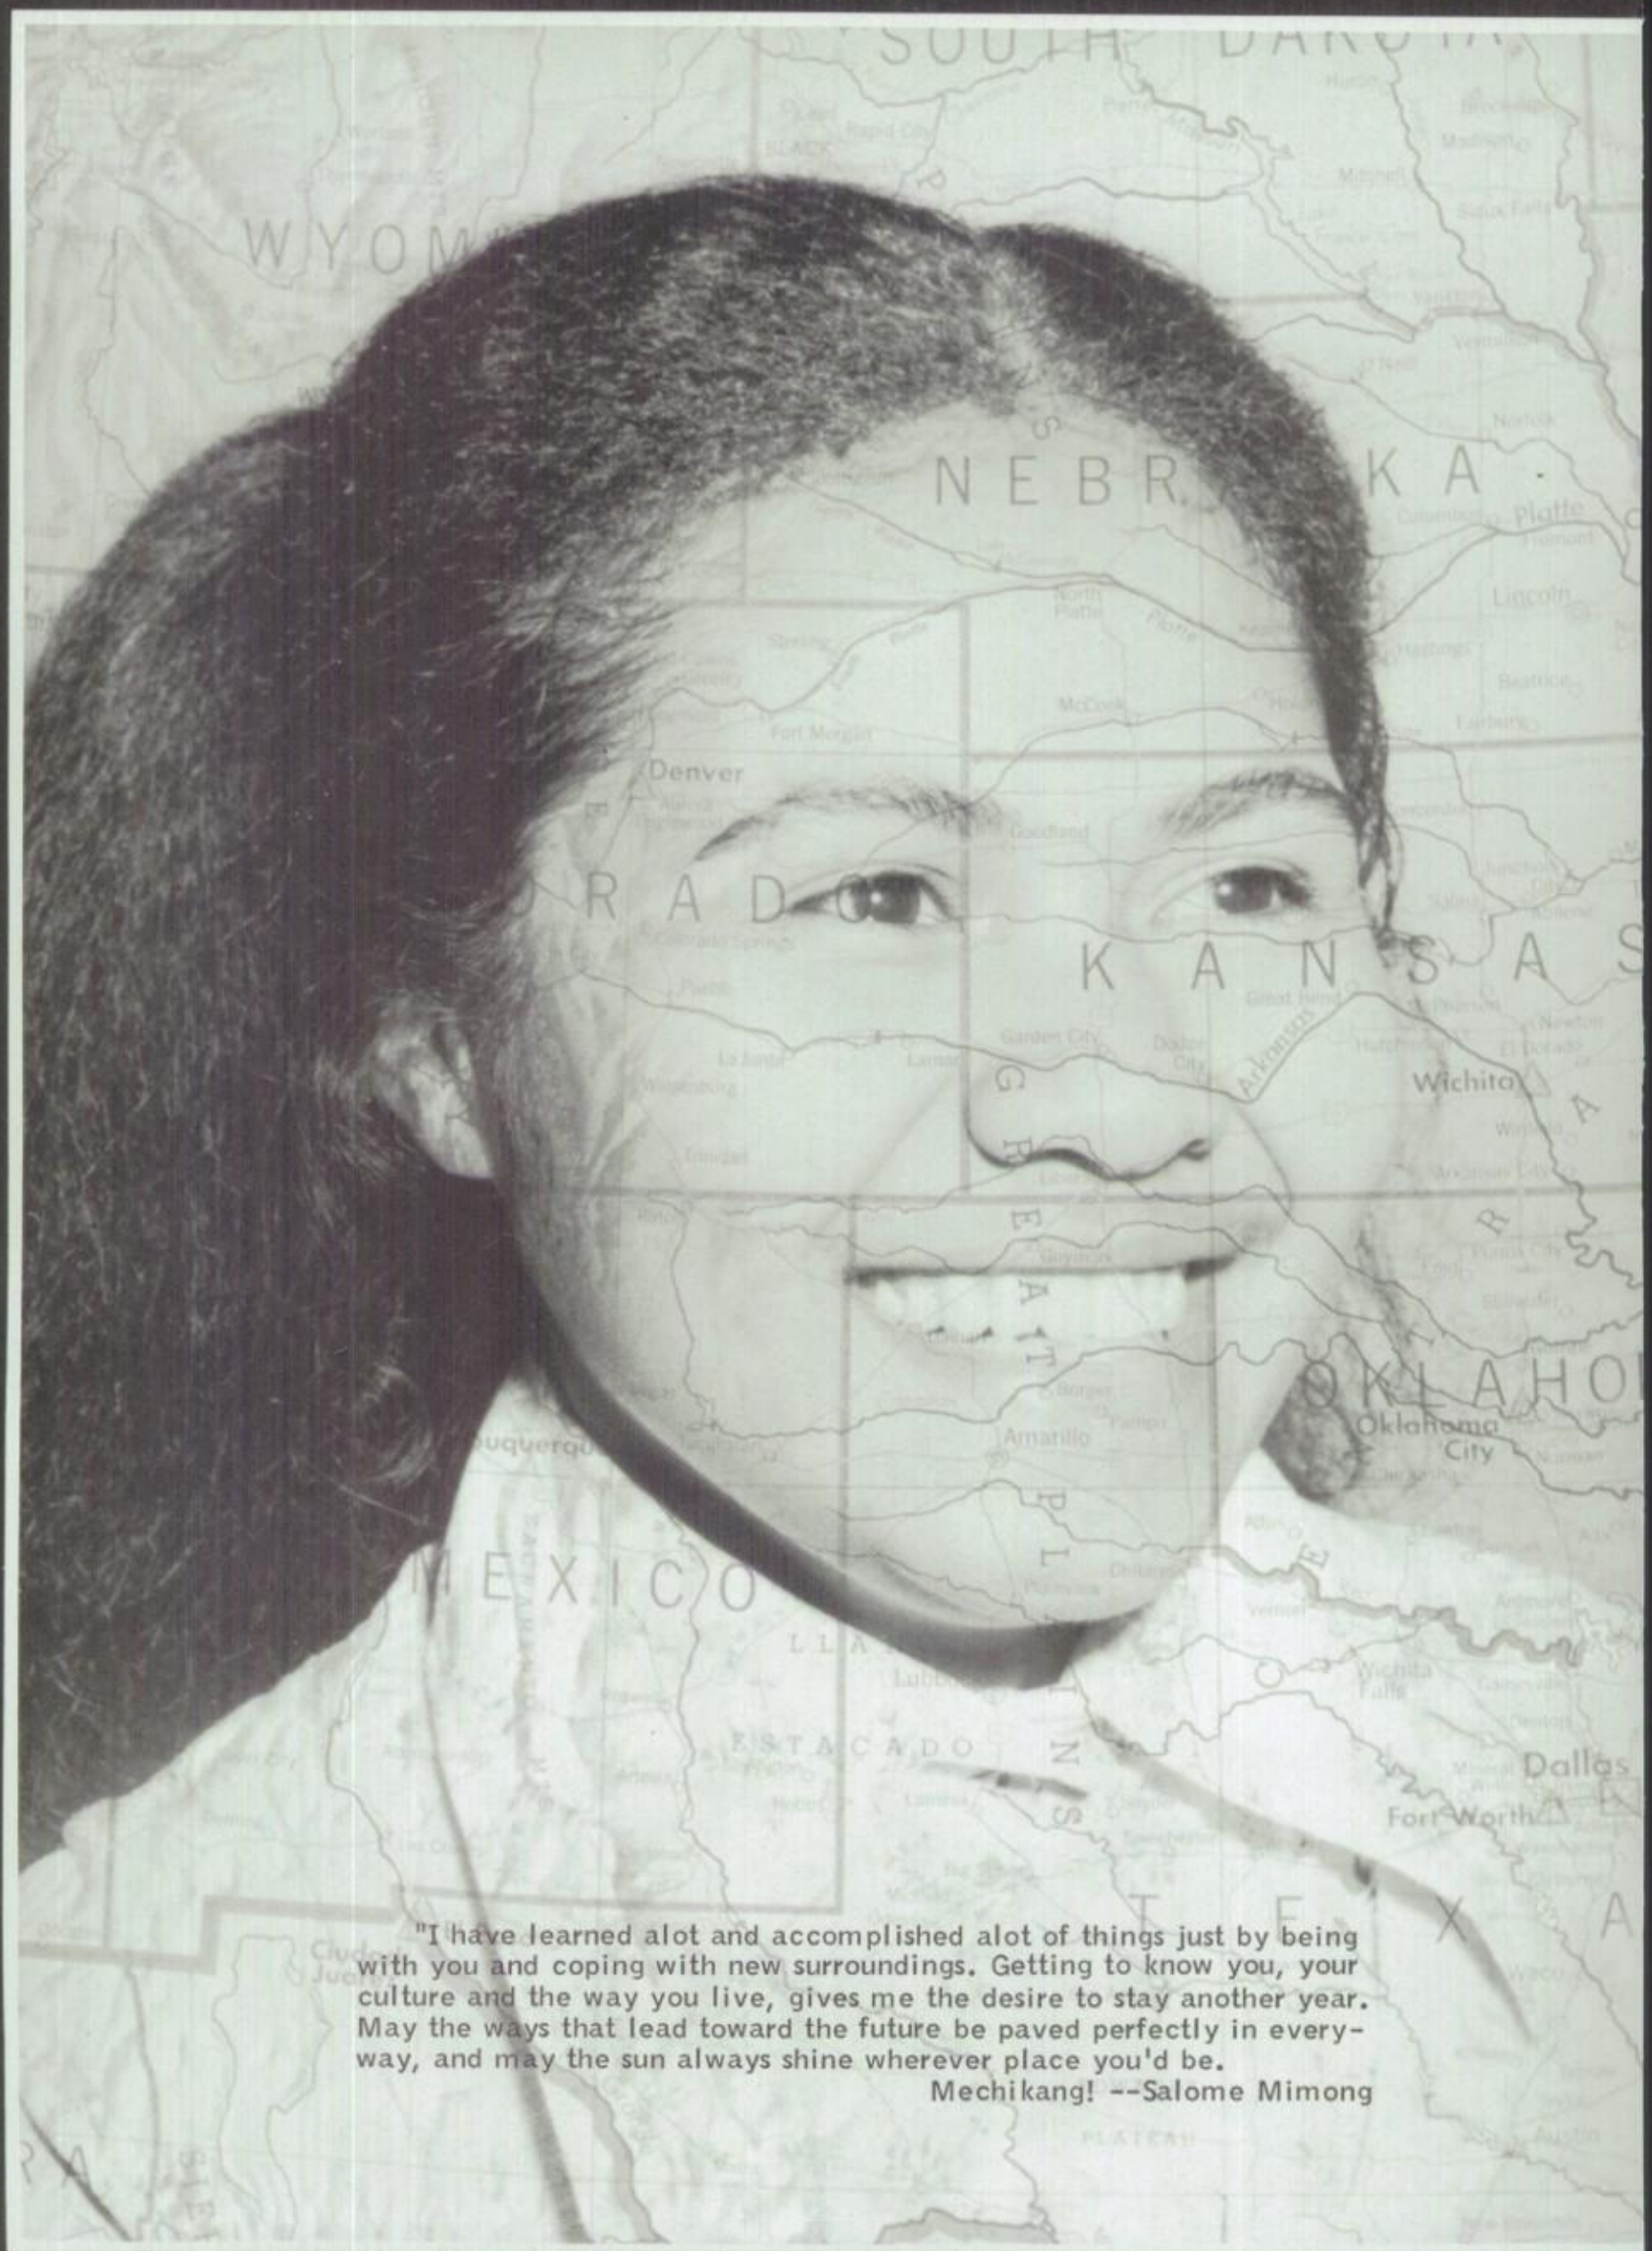
SALOME



"I have learned alot and accomplished alot of things just by being with you and coping with new surroundings. Getting to know you, your culture and the way you live, gives me the desire to stay another year. May the ways that lead toward the future be paved perfectly in every-way, and may the sun always shine wherever place you'd be.

Mechikang! --Salome Mimong

Our school days were brightened with the arrival of our new foreign exchange student, Salome Mimong. She h unselfishly shared with us her life as we have shared ours with her. She will be greatly missed as a companion and fellow-classmate.

SALUTES . . .

"I really enjoyed my stay in Santiago. My family was just great and I really adored my brothers and sisters. There was quite a bit of political stress with various demonstrations for and against the Revolution. I will always remember my stay as one of the most enlightening and influential periods of my life, and I thank AFS for their Sponsorship.

COLLEEN

Colleen Mahoney came back to "us" in February of this 1974 school year after her AFS stay in Chile. She went it a very trying period, entering a highly intensified political atmosphere--The Revolution.

THE 1974 WINTER

Julie Redinger and Joe Lehman

The Winter Dance, held January 19 from 8 p.m. to midnight, proved to be a "Sleighride Success." The theme of the dance was "Old Fashioned Sleighride," complete, with a sleigh, snowflakes, and an ice skating pond of mirrors. Greg Roig and Wendy Leech gave up their year long reign and crowned Joe Lehman and Julie Redinger, the new king and queen. The Winter Dance '74, was publicized more than any other dance has been in recent years. The apathy of the student body seemed to wear off and the students attending the dance happily took to the dance floor. The Con Lang Trio provided the mood with their infinite variety of music. The "Hokey Pokey" and the "Bunny Hop," were two dances that really mixed everyone together. A polka was requested, and despite much bumping and excusing, it was by far the most popular dance. Student Council contributed much to the success of the dance. It was through their handy work on publicity and decorating that made the Winter Dance of '74 the best in years.

ANXIOUS JUNIOR CANDIDATES

Sherri Swan, Mike McKinney, Jim Hensberger, Julie Redinger, Melissa Fette, and Joe Lehman.

"SLEIGH RIDE"

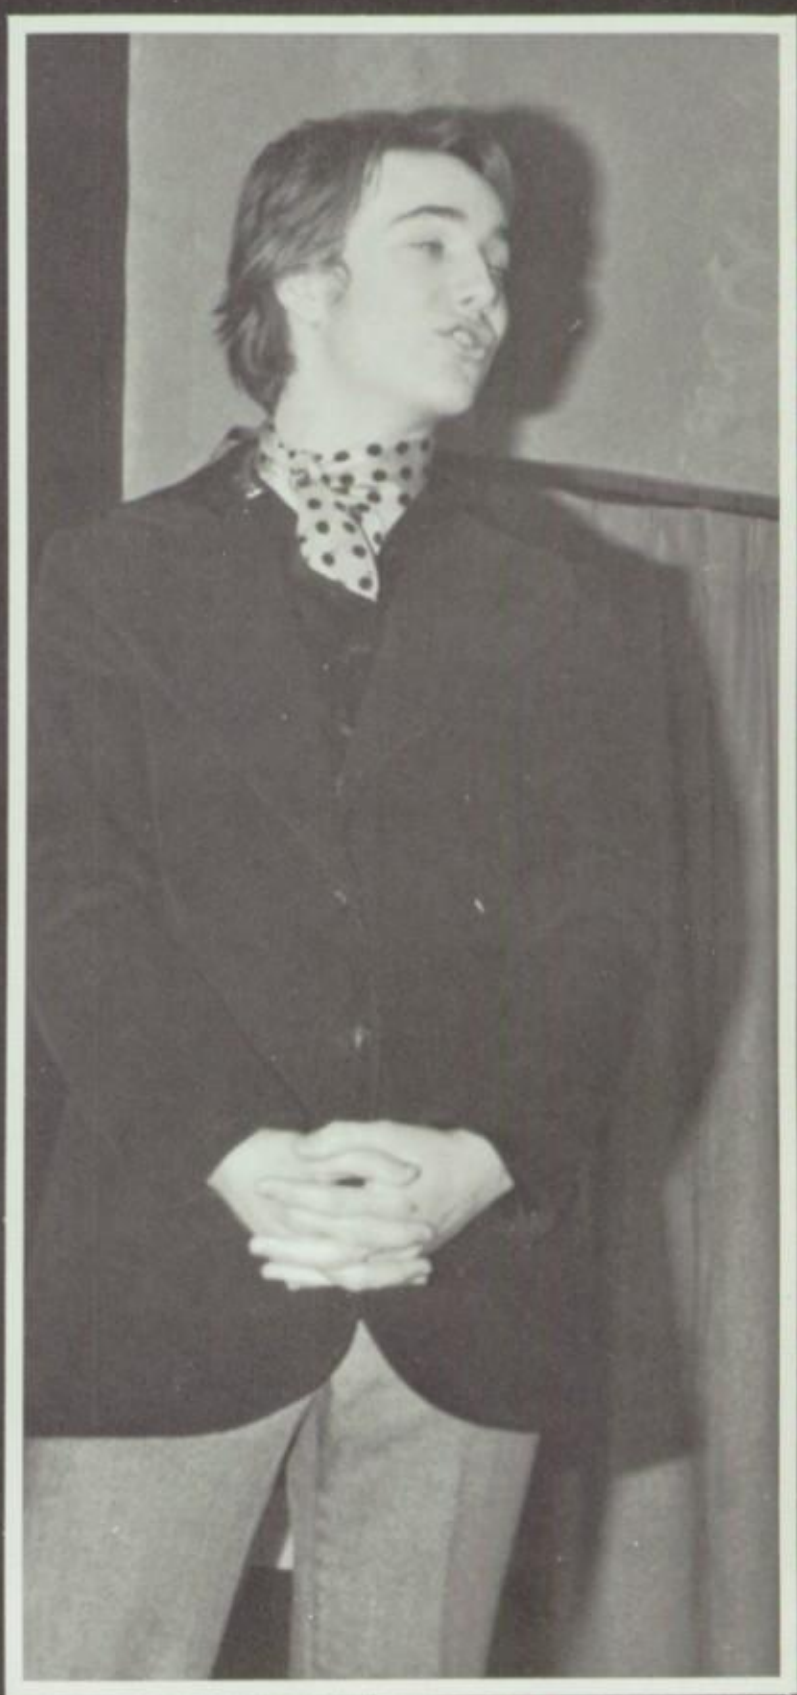
THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER

A comedy in three acts by, Moss Hart and George Kaufman presented by Masquers' for their spring play on March 22nd and 23rd. The play is about a disrupted household when Mr. Sheridan Whiteside (Jon Funk) feigns a broken hip from a fall on the porch of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley (Steve McMillen and Robin Schreiber). The confusion is mounted where Whiteside's charming friend, Lorraine Sheldon (Sue Hancock) visits and tries to break up a romance between a local newspaperman (Ron Wallace) and Whiteside's secretary (Mary Hancock). Whiteside's decision is to send Lorraine away and he doesn't find a way to do this until Banjo (Ted Kucklick), locks her in a mummy case.



SPOTLIGHT

The 1973-74 school year ushered in a completely new staff for the SPOTLIGHT, the OF school newspaper. With the aid of advisor Mrs. Ruth Sullivan, the SPOTLIGHT crew turned out seven four-page issues and a final eight-page paper.

SPOTLIGHT duties included conducting interviews, writing up stories, taking any related photographs, editing and typing the stories, making headlines, pasting up the newspaper and finally taking the paper to the printer. Jan Furr was photographer and Feature Page Editor, Pat Rex edited the Sports Page, Brenda Petto was responsible for the Editorial Page. Connie Schlea-Front Page; Colleen Mahoney--Editor-in-Chief.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish, French, and AFS Clubs have been concerned in broadening student perspective on customs of other countries. Each group participates in various cultural excursions which succeed in closing the cultural gap between countries and individuals.

FRENCH CLUB

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Student Council had a very successful and enjoyable year, as President, Tim Atkinson initiated various activities for the benefit of the students. Involvement was the major reason for the Council's success. V-President, Bill Miller, Secretary Teresa Calco, and Treasurer Carol Dooney, along with many other active members, participated in the various successful programs initiated this year. For the first year in several years, the Homecoming Dance, Winter Dance, Sock Hop, and All-School Party, were all successful. Contributions of goods and money were donated to the "Xenia Cleanup" and Cuyahoga County Library System, Revision of the Council Constitution, under the guidance of Advisor--Robert Venefra, and establishment of a new assembly committee for the 74-75 school year.

Stimulating public awareness; getting involved, and assisting individuals in groups in need, is the "KEY" purpose of this club. President, Ken Pugh, V-President, Larry Hechko, Secretary, Rich Miska, Treasurer Joe Lehman, and the regular members of Key Club all assumed various responsibilities in certain areas. A collection of canned goods for the needy for Christmas, participation in "Trot for Track," and attending a "Youth Day Rally," in Cleveland--marked a few of Key Clubs many accomplishments. Due to the success of this year, Advisors Charles Moosebrugger and Robert Venefra plan on a "vacation" with the Key Clubbers in Canada this summer.
